“With songs about hats, corn and chickens, the Loose Acoustic Trio’s new CD, “Brand New Mind”, may seem like yet another emo-metal band who’ve unplugged. But don’t let the down-home sincerity fool you: There’s wit and soul in this modern jug-band equivalent.”

Marcus Crowder Sacramento Bee

“This is a very enjoyable, funny, entertaining album to listen too. I would say the style of music makes me feel like I am sitting in some small watering hole in the middle of nowhere. The stories in the songs are creative and fun. I love corn too! Great work guys!”

BFR Magazine

CD BABY

"From Sacramento, CA, The Loose Acoustic Trio has released one of my favorite albums of 2005. It's full of well-written, fun, original tunes straight from the Central Valley. These guys deliver accordion, banjo and giant fiddle madness on “Brand New Mind.”

Michael Leahy “Cool As Folk” KDVS radio – Davis, CA

"In 10 years of keeping fairly close track of such things, 6 albums have had a 100% hit rate where every cut is something I want to play. "Brand New Mind" is number 7 on the "clean sweep" list. At some point in the next few months I will be playing every track on the CD. Thanks."

Richard Schwartz (aka Professor Purple)

KZMU radio - Moab, Utah

"You guys have done a great job with this thing. The mix is fantastic, the songs are great. I can't believe I'm saying this about accordion, banjo, mandolin and knuckle-head harmonies, but it's really well done."

I received many compliments from students and teachers alike on not just your playing and singing, but your wit, originality and tremendous passion for music as well.
